

SECURITY AND RELATED ACTIVITIES (CONTROL) ACT 1996

SECURITY AGENT'S LICENCE

HODGSON, Robin John
PO Box 136
BULLSBROOK, WA, 6084

Licence No: SA33952
Expiry Date: 12 May 2019
Date of Birth: 12 August 1955

Your Security Agent's licence, as defined in section 11 of the Security and Related Activities (Control) Act 1996 authorises you to supply the services of:

- (a) Security Officers
- (b) Security Consultants
- (c) Security Installers
- (d) Security Bodyguards

Division 1 of Schedule 1 of the Security and Related Activities (Control) Regulations 1997 outlines the conditions and restrictions attached to your licence.

Your licensed Security Officers are only authorised to possess or carry a firearm or baton whilst performing their licensed duties if they hold the appropriate endorsement on their licence.

Under Section 61 of the Security and Related Activities (Control) Act 1996, you must carry the identification card issued to you at all times whilst performing licensed duties.

CENTRAL STATIONS AND SIGNALLING LINKS

Should your business monitor security alarms, your Security Agent's licence authorises you to supply licensed Security Officers to perform electronic surveillance duties in your central station, provided that your central stations and signalling links are built in compliance with the specifications as published by the Standards Association of Australia "Australian Standard 2201. Intruder Alarm Systems, Part 2 - Central Station and Signalling Links".

PUBLIC LIABILITY INSURANCE

Your agency is required to maintain an adequate insurance policy to cover any public risk.

You are licensed on behalf of Southern Cross Protection.

Code of Conduct signed and acknowledged on 26th March 2013
